

“ We deliver on our promises and consistently exceed the expectations of our clients ”

Flexible

We meet our clients when and where suits them. Additionally we know that matters cannot always be discussed during business hours so are accessible and available outside of business hours.

Accredited

Our Licensee's are certified specialists with the Australian Institute of Conveyancers, peak body representing specialist conveyancers in NSW. Our Principal is also a Councillor for the NSW Division of the Australian Institute of Conveyancers, acting as a voice and a leader in the Conveyancing Industry.

Deposit Power

To issue bonds.

Office of State Revenue

To stamp legal documentation.

Attorney Generals Department

To certify documentation as Justice of the Peace.

Stewart Title

To issue title insurance policies.

Timely

We guarantee to return calls within two working hours and all correspondence is processed the same day it's received. More importantly, we will dispatch all contracts within 48 hours.*

Knowledgeable

As well as our property law expertise we are locals who live and work in the Hunter Region and have a firm understanding of the local area.

Cost Effective

Buying and selling property can be a costly undertaking – but your conveyancing services don't have to be. Our services are provided with a flat rate, meaning there are no last minute surprises.

* Subject to availability of search documents from government authorities.
Licence No. 1143306

~ results that move you ~

“ If you're buying or selling property, ask the kent conveyancing team to take the legal matters off your hands ”

BOOLAROO
71 Main Road

HAMILTON
Opening in 2014
2/102 Tudor Street

T. 4941 7474

The KENT Conveyancing team are conveyancing specialists who are 100 percent dedicated to and focused on property law.

The KENT Conveyancing team offer a wide range of services including Powers of Attorney; Sale and Purchase of residential, rural, industrial and commercial property; as well as related party property transfers, boundary adjustments, subdivisions, commercial and retail leasing and more.

“We pride ourselves on delivering a streamlined and effortless process, from initial enquiry through to settlement”

The legal requirements of buying and selling property can be a confusing process and our team pride ourselves on working with our clients to determine specific individual requirements.

“We communicate openly to make sure our clients have a clear understanding of the circumstances and the options available.”

At KENT Conveyancing we have a passion for conveyancing and because we work within this niche area on a daily basis you can be confident in our comprehensive knowledge and expertise.

“We know what bases to cover and we’ll handle them for you”

